> Notice of Motion:

> Report Councillor Crist:

> That the District representative and his alternate on the GVRD Board, as > well as the District's representative to the Board of the Greater

> Transportation Authority (Translink) or the District's choice for this > position as the case may be, be elected during an open District Council > meeting as is the case in the City of Richmond and that to accomplish this > the following procedure be adopted and further that this method also be > adopted for Council's candidates to GVRD Committees.

> 1) GVRD

> The Mayor will call for nominations in public in turn for > a) The position to represent the District on the Board as a full member

> b) The position to represent the District on the Board as an alternate

> Each of these should be dealt with separately. If there is only one > nomination to a position, it would be in order to have that nomination > confirmed by a Council resolution. If more than one person is nominated, a > ballot, by way of a show of hands, should be used to demonstrate the > support for each nominee, and the eligible member with the most support > would again be confirmed by a resolution of Council and further that this > procedure be extended to all GVRD Committee appointments by Council.

> c) That the same procedure be followed in filling GVRD Committee > appointments by Council

> 2) TRANSLINK

> That the District's choice for representing the District of North

> Vancouver to Translink be based on the following procedure

> a) The Mayor will at a public Council meeting call for nominations from a > list of candidates which have been conveyed to him by other Councils and > or by members of his own Council.

> b) If there is only one nomination for the position, it would be in order > to have that nomination confirmed by Council resolution. If more than one > person is nominated, a ballot, by way of a show of hands, should be used > to demonstrate the support for each nominee, and the results should be

- > conveyed to the other Councils' and or alternatively
- >
- > c) A meeting of all appropriate North Shore jurisdictions be arranged for
- > the purpose of electing an eligible representative to Translink in public
- > and that this be done by a show of hands and
- >
- > d) that each and every candidate be given a maximum 5 minutes of speaking
- > time to convey his /her priorities if elected.
- >
- > Rationale:
- >
- > The City of Richmond has demonstrated by example that elections for both
- > the GVRD Board and Translink can be accomplished by following democratic
- > procedure in public. It behooves the District to do likewise. Also the
- > District should carry this procedure forward so that it includes all
- > Council appointments to GVRD Committees.
