Dear Mr. Cassidy:

Subject: Your letter addressed to Mayor Don Bell Re Council meeting June 12
-Item 2.- Use of District Council Chambers Assessment Appeal Hearings.

I see from your letter that it is your contention that the information given to Council pertaining to this matter was incorrect.

I appreciate the detailed points in the staff report you have listed in your letter. It is extremely important for members of Council to receive professional information at all times. Since in some documented instances, charges have been made in the past that District Council has received incomplete, misleading and unprofessional information from some members of staff, clarification of this matter is of particular sensitivity and importance.

I would appreciate any additional information you may have

Thank you for your assistance.

Yours truly,

Ernie Crist
