Dear Ms. ZoAnn Mortenson:

Subject: Your correspondence re the upcoming staff report on water runoff and associated environmental protection matters.

Indeed I look forward to this report presently being prepared by staff. I concur with you wholeheartedly that this is an extremely important matter. I also want to use this opportunity again to congratulate you on the level of your awareness and above all your dedication to protect our environment.

Please rest assured that I will do the very best I can to support any and all initiatives to address your concerns as outlined in your correspondence and in your previous address to Council.

I trust that, if and when this matter comes before Council we will again have the benefit of your input. You may wish to call the Clerk to find out when this item will be on the Council agenda.

Respectfully Yours,

Ernie Crist
