A message from Ernie Crist.

Today an important event took place in North Vancouver District Civic politics. The "enemy" blinked. For greater detail you should read today's (Wed Feb. 27) N.S. NEWS. I will not at this time be more specific but if you do read the NEWS you will undoubtedly appreciate what I am talking about. If any of the above persons wishes to call me I will explain my view of the above subject in greater detail.

My appreciation goes out to all civic activists but I wish to thank and congratulate Brian Platts, Corrie Kost, John Hunter, Maureen Bragg, Dave Sadler, Bill Tracey, Alf Cockle, Liz James and Eric Andersen in particular for their perseverance, dedication to integrity, hard work and for their exemplary display of civic responsibility in general. I also wish to include Pat Munroe with whom I have been in touch.

I knew this day would come - it is just a little sooner than I expected. In the meantime the struggle for better local government continues. Forward to the civic election in November.

If any of the above persons wishes to go to the White Sport following tonight's meeting I should be happy to join and explain the situation in greater detail.

Ernie
