Dear Mr. Poole:

Thank you for the information. I did bring this issue to the attention of District Staff when you wrote to me the last time. I will do so again - hopefully this time our staff will be able to correct this error. You are quite right, it is a matter of principle. I have learned a long time ago that doing small jobs right is as important as doing the big ones right. Indeed for what it's worth I have also learned that people who cannot do small jobs right, very seldom do big jobs right.

Thank you again,

Ernie Crist.

Hello Mr. Crist,

After the election I told you of political mailings concerning the District I received here in the City, four blocks south of the boundary.

I have pointed out to staff before that I receive a Garbage Schedule each year for the district. I find it ironic that this flyer contains instructions for proper recycling as, of course my neighbours and I will be instantly recycling this unneeded mailer.

The district may save a small amount by not bulk mailing to these unnecessary areas and may not need to print up as many schedules.

This may not compare to affairs concerning hundreds of thousands of dollars but is a matter of principle.

David Poole
