> Dear Mr. Dalton;

>

> I am as concerned as you are that repeated requests to Senior Staff for legitimate information have gone unanswered.

>

> If it is any consolation, you are not the only victim. I too suffer the same fate and so do many others. Many of my own requests for information have been simply ignored.

>

> Keeping tab on a Councillor to make sure he does not trespass the Clerk's department area and writing lengthy reports to this effect is obviously easier than responding to legitimate requests for information including from the electors.
