A MESSAGE FROM ERNIE CRIST

This is in response to a Province News story in which Ms Liz James has been quoted in connection with the "Crist" incident in the District of North Vancouver.

There is a story about one of Buddha's travels in India many centuries ago. When during a journey, the Goutama (Buddha) and his disciples were resting under a tree, one of them turned to the silent Goutama and said, why are you not speaking master ? If I were to speak came the reply "you might be sorry".
