Subject: Public Assistance Requested in Stabbing

On August 21st at approximately 1:25 am, North Vancouver RCMP were called to a stabbing outside a Pub in the 1500 block of Barrow Street in North Vancouver. Upon attendance, police located a male with a stab wound to his chest. This male, a 23 year old North Vancouver resident, was transported to hospital by ambulance. His condition thus far is that his injuries are not life threatening. Members contained the crime scene and conducted a thorough investigation. Police located a knife near the scene and it is in the process of being analyzed for DNA comparison. As the investigation is in the preliminary stages, this is the only information being released at this time.

Suspect description: Caucasian male, approximately 20 years old, 5'10" - 6' tall, medium build and light brown hair.

North Vancouver are asking anyone with information into this matter to contact Cst. Powell of the North Vancouver RCMP at (604)985-1311, or, if you wish to remain anonymous, call Crime Stoppers at 1-800-222-TIPS
