Subject: Stolen Vehicle Spotted, Suspect Arrested

Last evening just after 7:00pm a vehicle was reported to be possibly stolen as a witness spotted two males acting suspicious around a white minivan, and then leaving from the Pemberton Avenue area in the same van. Inquiries showed that the vehicle had just previously been stolen from a health products business. Shortly afterwards a North Vancouver RCMP member on patrol spotted the minivan headed towards West Vancouver but lost sight of the vehicle in traffic. West Vancouver P.D. were advised of the situation and we also on the lookout for the stolen car.

Just 10 minutes later with both RCMP and W.P.D. members searching, the vehicle was observed to be stopped in the 500 block of Duchess Avenue and the passenger was arrested. The driver of the stolen car had already ran away from the scene and was not located. That suspect is still outstanding..

The passenger was brought back to the North Vancouver RCMP Detachment and will appear in court today to face a charge of Possession of Stolen Property over $5000. The 36 year old male is a North Vancouver resident, and is known to police.
