I am appalled by the fact that TransLink had a "public" meeting at Capilano University recently without notifying the public. Granted, there were 200 people there, but what bias is this? Who exactly were these 200 people? How were they notified of this meeting? There was no advertisement in either of the North Shore community papers.

The 255 Dundrave bus comes from West Van to Lynn Valley. The plans are that it will continue on to Capilano University. The issue of a bus terminal and where it will be affects many residents of the North Shore, not just the residents of Lynmour and Inter River.

TransLink is an unelected board and the fact that it puts on a so-called public meeting without advertising the fact I find a breach of democracy in this province.

It is becoming increasingly apparent that TransLink is accountable to nobody.
