Dear Editor,

I write in response to DNV's Mayor Richard Walton and Council's letter, North Shore News [OCP process a careful balancing act April 17.]

#1 The mayor has only one vote. The accuracy is that it should read Mayor and Councillors;

#2 I attended many of these meetings. None of my comments were mentioned in the glossy brochures that were paid for while at the same time the DNV stopped advertizing their Council Agendas in the North Shore News or anywhere else;

#3 New studies have pointed out that densification produces only more traffic and pollution and crime. Do we want this ?

#4 In November vote for municipal candidates like myself who aspire to maintaining our quality of life.

As Ernie Crist used to say: "The whole world doesn't have to move to the District of North Vancouver at the expense of the people (voters) who live here now.
